YOUTH MINISTRY

Welcome Fintan Sullivan, Our New Youth Director!

We at All Souls are thrilled to welcome Fintan Sullivan as our new Director of Youth Ministry, Religious Education, and Service. Fintan joins us after two years with Christ in the City, where he spent time building relationships with the homeless in the streets of Denver. A native of Colorado, Fintan is the seventh of nine siblings. He spent his early high school years in Mexico, where he worked as a surf and skateboard instructor, and later moved to Colombia before returning to Colorado.

We are excited to have him join our community and can't wait to see the vibrant energy he will bring. With Fintan's leadership, we will gradually work on revitalizing our middle school and high school youth groups, alongside a dedicated group of adult volunteers. Stay tuned for more updates! In the meantime, please help us in welcoming Fintan to the All Souls family, and feel free to reach out to him with any questions by contacting the Parish Office.

Totus Tuus

A big THANK YOU to all the youth who made it to Totus Tuus here at All Souls from July 20-25. It was a week full of faith-building, friendship and fun! Also, thank you to all the adult volunteers who dedicated their time to help make this amazing week possible!
