SPEAKERS

CHELSEY GOMEZ

Chelsy Gomez serves as Program Consultant to the USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities. She helps dioceses and parishes increase their outreach and support to pregnant and parenting mothers through Walking with Moms in Need. Chelsy has a master's degree in Catechetics from The Catholic University of America, as well as a bachelor's degree in journalism and literature from the University of Central Florida. Chelsy lives in Colorado with her husband where she also serves as the OCIA coordinator for her local parish.

SISTERS OF LIFE

The Sisters of Life are a religious community of women founded in 1991 by John Cardinal O'Connor who take a fourth vow to protect and enhance the sacredness of human life. Immersed in Eucharistic prayer within a vibrant community life, their missions include caring for vulnerable pregnant women and their unborn children; inviting those wounded by abortion into the healing mercy of Jesus; fostering a Culture of Life through evangelization; retreat works; spiritual accompaniment of college students; and upholding the beauty of marriage and family life.
